INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the General Meeting of Associates of Oceana México, Protegiendo los Océanos del Mundo, A.C.

Opinion.

1. We have audited the financial statements of Oceana México, Protegiendo los Océanos del Mundo, A.C. (the Association), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the statements of activities and the statements of cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

2. In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Oceana México, Protegiendo los Océanos del Mundo, A.C., as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and its activities and cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standards applicable in Mexico (MFRSs).

Basis for Opinion.

3. We conducted our audits in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements" section of our report. We are independent of the Association in accordance with the Code of Professional Ethics of the Mexican Institute of Public Accountants (Code of Professional Ethics), along with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audits of the financial statements in México, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and with the Code of Professional Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter, National Health Emergency.

4. We draw attention to the matter described in Note 14 to the financial statements, which indicates the suspension of non-essential activities as of March 31, 2020, declared by the Government of Mexico through the Ministry of Health arising from the public health emergency. During the suspension period, the Association did not receive any donations.

5. In addition, payment commitments made to cover payroll amounts, payments to suppliers of goods and services and other fixed expenses, were made with funds contributed by Oceana Inc. to the Association's Net Assets of $13,427,197. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Emphasis of Matter, Accounting Policies.

6. We draw attention to Note 3, paragraph e), which describes the policy for the recognition of equipment leasing. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements.

7. Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with MFRSs, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

8. In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Association's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Association or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

9. Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Association's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements.

10. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

11. As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Association's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Association's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Association to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentations, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

12. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
